Tips for Writing a Great Blog Comment

See below for some writing tips for a better blog comment!

1. Be concise.

- Comments are meant to be short and to the point. The shorter a comment, the more likely someone will read it. A word limit of 75 is ideal.

2. Connect the blog post to your cause.

- Writing a blog comment is a great way to advertise your cause or organization by featuring web addresses that venture back to a specific site or blog. Be sure to first and foremost write a valid response, however, and not simply use blog commenting for advertising purposes.

3. Give your opinion.

- Blog comments are a reaction to a blog post, so it should be your opinion to what you've read. It is important not to make the comment too fact driven but instead to be opinionated about the topic discussed.

4. Be Yourself.

- In the end, you want your voice be heard, so make sure your comment is something you are proud of.
