

If you are 50 years or older, or a family caregiver of an elder, we want to hear your ideas on how to help New Mexico elders cover their basic living expenses and be more economically secure.

The Aging and Long-Term Services Department will be conducting a public dialogue in your town!

Date:
May 13, 2010

Time:
9:00 a.m. — 12:00 p.m.

Location:
Civic Center
200 W. Arrington
Farmington, NM

The current economic decline has made it more difficult than ever for New Mexico's elders to meet their basic needs.

What can we do, or ask others to do, to strengthen the economic security of all aging New Mexicans?

Space is limited. To reserve your spot at the forum please call (505) 476-4887

Refreshments will be served

Supporting Lifelong Independence and Healthy Aging

