

Elder Economic Security in Massachusetts

Worcester Senior Center
128 Providence Street
Worcester, MA

Wednesday, December 13, 2006
10 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Welcome

Ann L. Hartstein, Executive Director, Massachusetts Association of Older Americans

Michael Perotto, Worcester City Councilor

Statewide Elder Standard Highlights

Laura Henze Russell, Director, Elder Economic Security Project, Gerontology Institute,
University of Massachusetts

Overview of Statewide Policy Agenda

Ann L. Hartstein, Executive Director, Massachusetts Association of Older Americans

Personal Reflections on Making Ends Meet
Elder from Worcester

Comments from Our State Senator

State Senator Ed Augustus

National Elder Economic Security Initiative/Policy

Ramsey Alwin, Associate Director of National Programs and Policy, Elder Economic Security Initiative, Wider Opportunities for Women

Q&A from Press and Close

Ann L. Hartstein, Executive Director, Massachusetts Association of Older Americans

This release is a part of the national Elder Economic Security Initiative (EESI) at Wider Opportunities for Women (WOW). The Massachusetts Association of Older Americans (MAOA) leads the EESI effort in Massachusetts. The Massachusetts Elder Standard was developed using a national methodology designed by the Gerontology Institute at the University of Massachusetts Boston and WOW. The Elder Economic Security Initiative is funded with the generous support from the Retirement Research Foundation.

Wider Opportunities for Women

University of Massachusetts
Boston®