

Wider Opportunities for Women

WISCONSIN
WOMEN'S network

Wisconsin Elder Economic Security Initiative
Seminar on Key Findings and Strategies to Improve Elders' Economic Well-Being

Wednesday, Sept. 23, 2009
10:00 AM – 11:30 AM
Best Western Inn on the Park, Madison
Capital East Room

Agenda

Welcome and Introduction: Sharyn Wisniewski, Wisconsin Women's Network Chair

National Perspectives and Explanation of Findings: Stacy Sanders, National Elder Economic Security Initiative Associate Director, Wider Opportunities for Women

Wisconsin Policy Perspective: Rob Gundermann, Alzheimer's Association of South Central Wisconsin

Making Ends Meet and Aging with Dignity in Wisconsin: Denise L. Grossman, Jefferson County Elderly Benefits Specialist, Wisconsin Association of Benefit Specialists and Candace Corbett, Winnebago County Elderly Benefits Specialist

Questions from the Audience

Thank you for joining us today! If you would like to receive a fact sheet with information for your county or district, please contact Johanna Hatch, Project Coordinator at wiwomen@execpc.com or 608-255-9809.

The Wisconsin Elder Economic Security Initiative has been endorsed by:

AARP Wisconsin, AgeAdvantAge, Alzheimer's Association, Black Women 50+ Health & Lifestyles Magazine, Care Wisconsin, Citizen Action of Wisconsin, Coalition of Wisconsin Aging Groups, Community Health Partnership, Dane County Area Agency on Aging, Disability Rights Wisconsin, Milwaukee County Department on Aging, National Association of Social Workers - Wisconsin Chapter, Older Women's League - Milwaukee, SAGE/Milwaukee, University of Wisconsin School of Nursing, Wisconsin Alliance for Retired Americans, Wisconsin Association of Aging Unit Directors, Wisconsin Association of Area Agencies on Aging, Wisconsin Association of Benefit Specialists, Wisconsin Board on Aging and Long Term Care, Wisconsin Council on Children and Families, Wisconsin Council of Churches, Wisconsin Personal Services Association, Wisconsin Retired Educators Association, YWCA - Madison